

GENERAL DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

for

The Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data.

Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR"), 2018.

2. Who are we?

The Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene is the data controller (contact details below¹). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our Constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at or associated with Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene;
- To share your contact details with the Church of the Nazarene British Isles South District office so they can keep you informed about news in the District and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the District and further afield, and in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about local, district, and other associated general church events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;

 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church (for example Drinks Rotas or Door Keeping Rotas displayed in the church). We will only share your data with third parties outside of the local area with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene Data Protection Policy, which is available on request to the Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene Data Protection Officer via the contact details given below.²

Specifically, we normally retain church membership roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and registers (including baptisms, marriages, funerals) indefinitely.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene holds about you;
- The right to request that the Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Manchester Brooklands Church of the Nazarene to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
