"Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders. In a loud voice they were saying: 'Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and praise!' Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, saying: 'To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honour and glory and power, for ever and ever!' The four living creatures said, 'Amen,' and the elders fell down and worshiped." – Revelation 5:11-14

These words come from a vision of heaven in the book of Revelation. It's a stunning picture which captures the majesty of Christ as well as the diversity and beauty of creation in worship. The words proclaimed by the angels will be sung by us in our worship today. I like to think of our corporate times of worship in church as a joining with heaven in giving praise to God. I hope this feels particularly true today.

It was so good to have so many people in church last week. After I went to sit down following giving the announcements I didn't have a seat to sit on! I do want to remind people that if you remain uncomfortable worshipping in such busy environment we are continuing to broadcast our services on YouTube. Otherwise, I recommend that you get to church as early as possible to avoid the disappointment of not having a seat!

Following on from last week more people have expressed an interest in church membership here at Brooklands Nazarene. We will likely bring in another group at the end of this month. If you are interested, please let me know. We are also looking to have a baptism service later in the year.

Our Thursday community café continues to thrive, so much so that we are removing the 'pop-up' from its title and making it an ongoing weekly feature. Thank you to all who have contributed baking. We would like this to continue so if you are happy to contribute please speak to Lucy.

I'm also excited that a free weekly meal will be provided in the church on Wednesdays at 7pm. This is will be run by an organisation called FoodCycle who offer this in different places all across England. You are welcome to attend this and if you would like to volunteer at it I can link you in with them.

There seems to be so much going on at the moment and for that we are so thankful to God. To help with this we have increased Lucy's weekly hours by 5 in her role as pastoral assistant. She remains responsible in the areas of pastoral care and community engagement.

Peace,

Mick

Psalm 19

How do we know God exists?

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.
- 2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge.
- 3 They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them.
- 4 Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens God has pitched a tent for the sun.
- 5 It is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, like a champion rejoicing to run his course.
- 6 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is deprived of its warmth.
- 7 The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul. The statutes of the Lord are trustworthy, making wise the simple.
- 8 The precepts of the Lord are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the Lord are radiant, giving light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever. The decrees of the Lord are firm, and all of them are righteous.
- 10 They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the honeycomb.
- 11 By them your servant is warned; in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 But who can discern their own errors? Forgive my hidden faults.
- 13 Keep your servant also from wilful sins; may they not rule over me. Then I will be blameless, innocent of great transgression.
- 14 May these words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Mick's sermon this Sunday is taken from the above passage, Psalm 19, and will be asking the question "How do we know God exists?" Try to join us in church on Sunday, or watch the live broadcast on YouTube.

I continue to give God all the Praise, Glory and Thanks for what He has done and continues to do for me each day.

After only 6 months treatment by Christies, not only was I told that the cancer spots on various bones, mainly ribs, spine and pelvis were responding very well and have begun to shrink in size, I learned on Thursday that I would no longer be required to have a monthly blood test. These tests will now be carried out every 3 months, with a further scan in December. This is such great news and I wanted to share it with everyone.

To me this is nothing short of miraculous. The LORD has heard and continues to hear the prayers offered up for me by everyone at Brooklands and across the world.

My word of encouragement to those who are undergoing treatment is to keep praying and trusting the Lord for their deliverance. Throughout these last 8 months I have claimed and held onto the following scriptures:

Isaiah 46 v 4. Psalm 91. Psalm 41 v 3. Prov. 3 vs 5 and 6.

The Lord does answer prayer. He hears the cries of His children.

PRAISE HIS HOLY NAME.
